The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. On the left, a slide titled "How do you make a career of it?" is displayed with the following bullet points:

- Focus on tangible skills – "What do you bring to the table?"; Build those skills
- Network and learn from others – "You don't have time to make all mistakes yourself"
- Have a sense of what you require to move ahead – constant reflection to avoid mindless job-hopping

On the right, another slide titled "International Exposure" is shown with the following bullet points:

- Great to have a head start – international interns, competitions
Bonus point-> remote jobs and virtual internships
- Actively reach out/pursue global opportunities, you only need 1-2 to materialize
- Excel in present career/job/internship/project -> you never know when that might be of use

At the bottom left, a chat message from Shrushti Jeswani says: "Thank you ma'am". The bottom right shows a list of participants, including "You", "A", and "53 others".
