The webinar was organised under our club's Project Anved which aims to develop professional skills among the youth. One such skill we identified that needs addressing is Public Speaking. We contacted Mr. Amandeep Thind, a public speaking coach with an experience of over 12 years to help us create value in the society.

The session was filled with energy and covered a variety of topics such as nervousness, stage fright, why one should do public speaking, qualities a good public speaker has and so on. The attendees were interacting throughout the session with the speaker and were satisfied with the quality of the session in their feedback.
