OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT

The speaker session was organized with the objective of spreading awareness about Intellectual Property Rights among students. The foundational awareness regarding the rights of a creator needs to be developed in students from very scratch. Especially, with the onset of Covid and technology gaining momentum, the knowledge of Intellectual Property Rights becomes even more important. Discussing the relevant topics under this, students will learn about the latest information and new skills, provided a chance to interact with experts from the specific field.

The broad topics covered by Mr. Niversh during the session:

- Trademarks
- Patents
- Copyrights
- Geographical Indication
- Trade Secret
- Rights

BRIEF BIO OF THE SPEAKER

SPEAKER NAME: Mr. Nivesh Sharma

Mr. Nivesh Sharma is an alumnus of National Law University, Delhi, and holds an experience of more than 4 years. He is currently serving as the managing partner of the law firm, Prudens Globus Legal Solution. He has worked on various legal divisions before the Supreme Court of India as well as multiple High Courts across the country.

KEY OUTCOMES

Mr. Nivesh, with more than 4 years of experience at the bar conducted a very insightful talk to generate awareness about the topic of intellectual property rights among college students. The session was extremely interactive with various examples and real-life case studies increasing the engagement of the participants. Other than IPR, other topics covered included trademarks, patents, and copyrights.

PARTICIPANTS DETAIL

The session witnessed participation from a wide range of colleges across the DU Circuit. Students from colleges like Miranda House, Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Deen Dayal Upadhyaya College, and Khalsa College were present along with the majority of the students being from SSCBS. Participants from other universities like Symbiosis and Narsee Monjee Institute were also a part of the session expanding its reach to outside Delhi.
