Activity Summary

BRIEF BIO OF SPEAKER

Speaker Name: Mr. Akul Jindal

Mr. Akul Jindal is an SSCBS alumnus from the Batch of 2020. He has worked in companies like KPMG as an analyst and Kalaari Capital for their Venture Capital segment. He is also the founder of an enterprise named Red Herring Ventures. Apart from this, he is also serving at two more organizations: Knowledge Capital and Venture Highway. He has cleared two levels of CFA and he will soon be pursuing his post-graduation from Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT

The session was focused on what is entrepreneurship, how to develop entrepreneurial mindset and how we already have an entrepreneurial mindset. The speaker highlighted the importance of understanding the problem that user faces and empathizing with them.

Topics covered by Mr. Akul Jindal in the session:

- Problem identification techniques/tools
- Difference between entrepreneurship and entrepreneurial mindset
- Key features of entrepreneurship
- Reason behind why entrepreneurship culture is still lacking
- What kind of businesses are successful
- Entrepreneurial journey
- Need of Entrepreneur
- Ideation techniques/tools
- Prototype techniques/tools

KEY OUTCOMES OF THE EVENT

Mr. Akul Jindal is a versatile speaker and that's quite evident from his ability to keep the group engaged throughout the session. The speaker highlighted that it is not necessary that one should be an entrepreneur or have a start-up to have an entrepreneurial mindset.

The speaker shared his life experience and how he is connected to entrepreneurship.

The interactive session helped to clarify or to highlight the main reasons behind why the entrepreneurship culture is still lacking. The speaker helped the students to overcome those reasons.

The session also mentioned which businesses are most successful and at last the session ended with answering questions raised by students.
