FourthWallProductions

Glimpses of Theatre

Date & Time: 18th September 2024, 11:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Venue: SSCBS Campus (Outdoor & Indoor Sessions)

Organized By: Fourth Wall Productions, SSCBS

Number of Participants/Students: 100+

Objective of the Event:

The event was designed to give students a closer, more personal experience of theatrical performance, helping them witness and appreciate the expressive depth of theatre beyond introductory exercises.

Brief Summary:

Glimpses of Theatre was organized as a follow-up to the introductory workshop to provide a more focused and immersive understanding of performance art. Society members performed a series of short monologues, each highlighting different themes, emotions, and character portrayals.

The event not only demonstrated the power of theatre in storytelling but also allowed participants to observe and reflect on performance techniques such as voice modulation, stage presence, and emotional projection. The session concluded with an interactive discussion, where performers shared their experiences, and participants engaged with questions, creating an encouraging learning environment.

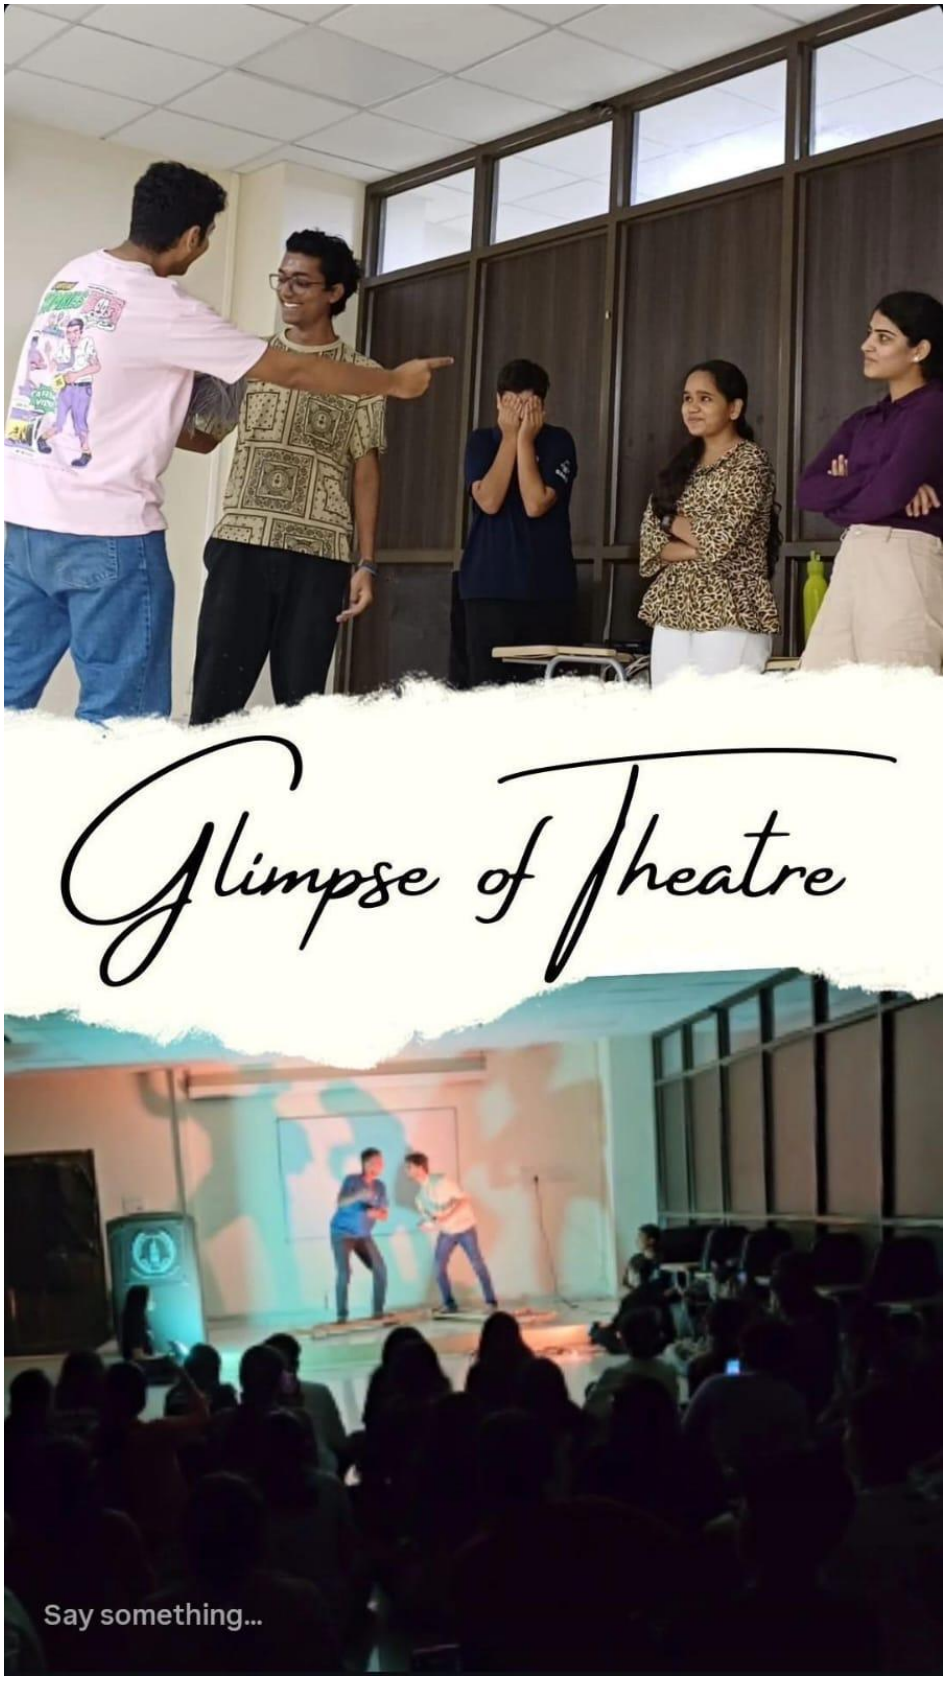
Key Outcomes / Learnings:

- Students gained deeper insight into theatrical performance and monologue presentation.
- The event enhanced participants' understanding of how body language, voice, and emotion combine to create impact on stage.
- It inspired many newcomers to actively pursue acting and performance within the society.
- Participants appreciated the unique format of live monologues, describing the session as both inspiring and eye-opening. The interactive discussion was particularly valued for bridging the gap between performers and the audience.

Photograph(s):

ESENTS
Theatre

PRODUCTIONS
RESENTS



https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1CnntCia-bTP5crzfgD1hpsNzUtLIYZ_x?usp=drive_link