

AWARENESS SESSION ON NEW CRIMINAL LAWS

VENUE: SHAHEED SUKHDEV COLLEGE OF BUSINESS STUDIES

DATE: 28TH AUGUST, 2025

INTRODUCTION

Rohini Police Department, in association with the Lawrence-The Law Forum of SSCBS, organized an Awareness Session regarding the New Criminal Laws by unveiling about the audio-visual content creation competition. This initiative aimed to educate citizens, especially students and community members, about key provisions, rights, and safeguards under the updated legal framework.

The session was designed to foster legal literacy, build trust between the police and the public, and encourage active community participation in justice-related matters.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SESSION

- To create awareness among citizens about the three new criminal laws.
- To highlight the rights and safeguards available to individuals under the new framework.
- To strengthen citizen–police engagement through open dialogue.
- To motivate youth and community members to act as responsible stakeholders in law and order.
- To discuss the objectives, framework, and modalities of the Audio-Visual Creative Competition

SESSION DETAILS

- Date & Venue: 28th August, 2025; SSCBS campus
- Organized by: Lawrence-The Law Forum of SSCBS, in collaboration with Rohini Police Department
- Target Audience: Students, youth and local residents
- Mode: Interactive awareness session with presentations and discussions
- Resource Persons: SI Ashish Malik, I/Foreigner Cell and SI Pawel, Officers from the Rohini Police Department
- During the session, participants were briefed on the significance of the reforms and how the new laws impact day-to-day life. Real-life scenarios were shared to explain practical aspects like FIR registration, digital evidence, women and child safety, and citizen rights.

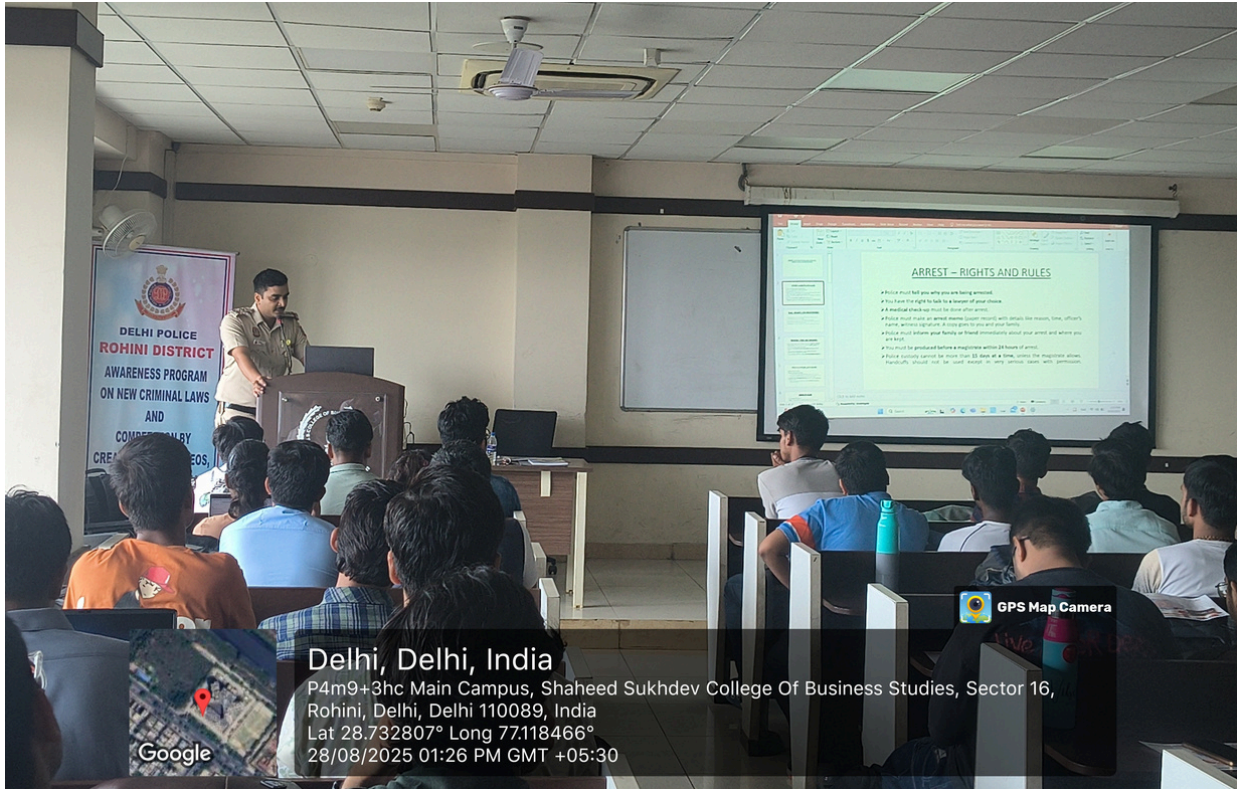

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Engaging explanations by police officers simplified complex legal concepts.
- Interactive Q&A sessions encouraged students to clarify doubts and share concerns.
- Participants expressed appreciation for the initiative and showed readiness to spread the message further.
- The joint effort enhanced trust and collaboration between the police and the community.
- Attendance of 100+ participants, reflecting strong community interest and outreach.

CONCLUSION

- The awareness session, jointly organized by Lawrence and the Rohini Police Department, successfully familiarized participants with the three new criminal laws. The event achieved its goal of empowering citizens with knowledge, strengthening the citizen–police bond, and ensuring that awareness reaches the grassroots level.
- This collaboration has created a foundation for continuing such programs in the future to promote legal literacy and responsible citizenship.

ANNEXURE

- Additional photographs from the awareness session are available at the following link: [\[Link\]](#)
- A detailed list of attendees present during the awareness session is provided below. [\[Link\]](#)