Orientation Play – “Laal Pencil”

Date & Time: 26th September 2024, 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Venue: SSCBS Campus – Akashganga Auditorium

Organized By: Fourth Wall Productions, SSCBS

Number of Participants/Students: 400+

Objective of the Event:

The Orientation Play was staged to welcome the incoming batch of first-year students and introduce them to the dramatic arts through a live performance. The objective was to foster a sense of community, inspire interest in theatre, and showcase the creative potential of the society.

Brief Summary:

Fourth Wall Productions presented its annual Orientation Play, “Laal Pencil”, as part of the induction activities for new students. The performance combined engaging storytelling with a relatable narrative, capturing themes of student life, imagination, and self-discovery.

The play served as both an introduction to the society’s style of performance and a platform for new members to experience the vibrancy of theatre at SSCBS. The event drew a large audience of over 400 students, creating an atmosphere of enthusiasm and curiosity for upcoming workshops and productions.

Through “Laal Pencil,” the society successfully bridged entertainment with orientation, offering first-years a memorable welcome into the cultural fabric of the college.

Key Outcomes / Learnings:

- First-year students gained exposure to live theatre at SSCBS.
- The play sparked enthusiasm and interest in joining theatre-related activities.
- The performance highlighted collaboration across seniors and juniors, strengthening internal bonds.
- The narrative connected with the audience, making orientation both entertaining and meaningful.
- Established the society’s culture of creativity, teamwork, and inclusivity at the start of the academic year.
