Raasa 2025 – Annual Theatre Festival

Date & Time:

1st April, 2nd April, and 16th April 2025 (Prelims & Final Showcase)

Venue: SSCBS Campus – Akashganga Auditorium

Organized By: Fourth Wall Productions, SSCBS

Number of Participants/Students: 400+

Objective of the Event:

Raasa 2025 was organized to celebrate the craft of theatre across Delhi University and beyond. The objective was to foster collaboration, creativity, and appreciation for performance, moving beyond competition to build dialogue and community among theatre societies.

Brief Summary:

Raasa, the annual theatre festival of Fourth Wall Productions, has become a signature event of the DU theatre circuit. The 2025 edition saw an overwhelming response, with 53 entries from colleges across Delhi.

- Preliminary Rounds (1st–2nd April): 20 shortlisted teams performed and received constructive feedback from theatre practitioners Arjun Sahni and Padam Sharma.
- Final Showcase (16th April): Six standout teams were selected to perform in front of a packed auditorium during SSCBS's cultural fest, Crescendo'25. The final was judged by Chinmoy Das, a celebrated theatre artist, who provided rich insights to all teams.

Supported by sponsors such as Eco Hand Crafted, Call of Cravings, MP Candles, and Ziyoor, Raasa highlighted the intersection of art, community, and cultural engagement. The event celebrated theatre not just as performance, but as a space of exchange, collaboration, and growth.

Key Outcomes / Learnings:

- Established Raasa as a non-competitive, celebratory festival, distinguishing it from other DU fests.
- Provided participants with expert feedback from senior theatre practitioners.
- Strengthened SSCBS's reputation as a hub for cultural and artistic excellence.

- Enhanced event management and organizational skills among society members.
- Created long-lasting networks between student theatre societies across Delhi.
- Encouraged artistic risk-taking and collaboration by shifting the focus from competition to craft.
