The final round was presided over by an esteemed judge from the finance and investment industry:

- Mr. Harsh Singh (Finance Professional and Investment Expert)

A finance graduate with a distinguished academic record and strong expertise in financial valuation and risk management. Having successfully cleared all levels of the Financial Risk Manager (FRM) certification and Level I of the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program, he possesses a comprehensive understanding of financial markets, investment analysis, and quantitative frameworks.

Key Highlights of the Competition

1. Registration and Outreach:

- o Equitex received an overwhelming response with over 500 registrations on Unstop, reflecting the growing interest among students in equity research and stock markets.
- o The competition attracted participants from colleges and universities across India, making it a truly national-level event.

2. Partnership with Upstox:

- o Equitex proudly partnered with Upstox as the gifting partner for the competition. Upstox, one of India's leading online brokerage platforms, provided exciting gifts and rewards for the winning teams, adding to the prestige of the event.
- o This partnership reinforced the competition's commitment to bridging the gap between academic learning and real-world financial markets.

3. The Final Round:

- o The final round was conducted online via Google Meet on 19th February 2026, featuring 9 shortlisted teams who presented their best stock pitches to the judge.

- o Each team was evaluated on the quality of their equity research, the depth of their financial analysis, their understanding of market dynamics, and the clarity and persuasiveness of their pitch.
- o Mr. Harsh Singh provided constructive feedback to all participating teams, sharing insights from his experience in the investment industry and guiding students on how to develop professional-grade stock pitches.

4. Winners:

- o 1st Place: Team Easy
- o 2nd Place: Team Alpha
- o 3rd Place: Team PAMATRADE.IN

Participant Engagement and Competition Experience

- Finalists presented well-researched and detailed stock pitches, demonstrating a strong command of fundamental and technical analysis.
- Teams engaged in an interactive Q&A with the judge, fielding in-depth questions on valuation methodologies, sectoral risks, and investment theses.
- Participants showcased their ability to analyze both quantitative data and qualitative factors, reflecting the rigorous preparation that had gone into their research.
- The online format facilitated seamless participation from students across different cities, making the competition more accessible and inclusive.

Equitex: The Stock Pitch Competition was a resounding success, bringing together some of the brightest young finance minds from across the country. The event successfully fostered a deeper appreciation for equity research and investment analysis among students, bridging the gap between classroom learning and real-world financial markets.
