FINANCIAL LITERACY CELL

SHAHEED SUKHDEV COLLEGE OF BUSINESS STUDIES

NSE Investor Awareness Session
Goal-Based Investing with Mutual Funds

The Financial Literacy Cell (FLC), Shaheed Sukhdev College of Business Studies, successfully organized an NSE Investor Awareness Session on "Goal Based Investing with Mutual Funds" under Opulentia'26 on 22nd January 2026. Conducted as part of the Investor Education and Awareness Initiative by Mirae Asset Mutual Fund, the session aimed to equip students with practical knowledge of financial planning, mutual fund investing, and long-term wealth creation.

The session was conducted by Mr. Harbinder Singh Sokh, an accomplished finance professional with experience at CDSL, BSE, ICICI Prudential, and Al Dobowi (U.A.E., Dubai). Through engaging discussions and practical examples, he provided valuable insights into goal-based investing, portfolio construction, mutual fund selection, and the importance of disciplined investing in achieving financial objectives.

Key Learnings from the Session

1. Understanding the concept of goal-based investing and its role in achieving long-term financial objectives.
2. Learning how mutual funds can be used as an effective vehicle for wealth creation and financial planning.
3. Understanding the importance of aligning investments with financial goals, risk appetite, and investment horizon.
4. Gaining insights into different categories of mutual funds and their suitability for various investment needs.
5. Learning the benefits of Systematic Investment Plans (SIPs) in building wealth through disciplined investing.
6. Understanding the power of SIP Top-Ups and how gradually increasing investment contributions can significantly enhance long-term returns.
7. Appreciating the impact of compounding in accelerating wealth creation over extended periods.
8. Understanding the importance of asset allocation and diversification in managing investment risk.
9. Learning how consistent investing and remaining invested during market fluctuations contribute to long-term financial success.
10. Developing a structured approach towards financial planning, wealth creation, and investment decision-making.

The session witnessed active participation from students across various courses and academic years, who engaged enthusiastically with the speaker and gained valuable insights into mutual fund investing and financial planning. The interactive discussions enabled participants to strengthen their understanding of investment principles and practical wealth management strategies.

A special acknowledgement is due to the efforts of the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Paridhi, Dr. Raj Kumar and Mr. Tushar Marwaha, whose guidance and support played a crucial role in the successful execution of the event.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Harbinder Singh Sokh for sharing his extensive industry knowledge and practical insights. The session was highly appreciated by participants and further reinforced the Financial Literacy Cell's commitment to promoting financial literacy, investment awareness, and informed financial decision-making among students.
