Greetings!

We hope this mail finds you well. We are writing on behalf of the Department of Statistics at Lady Shri Ram College for Women to invite your institution to participate in Tatva, a national-level sustainability case competition as part of our annual fest, Moments, and would be glad to have your college represented through a student contingent.

Tatva is being hosted in collaboration with Sattva Consulting and Blue Tea, offering a hands-on experience focused on real-world impact, sustainability strategy, and data-driven problem solving.

Participants will compete for a prize pool of ₹30,000+, with standout performers earning Pre-Placement Interviews with our partner organizations, along with hampers from Hey Basics. Finalists will present before an industry-aligned jury and engage directly with professionals in the sustainability and consulting space.

Registrations are now live on Unstop:
https://unstop.com/o/kWPX8Bd

Nominated contingents will receive direct entry to the final round to be held on 19th March at the LSR campus.

We would appreciate it if you could share this with your society and nominate teams to participate. Looking forward to your participation.

Regards,
Avni Jindal

Hi Team,

Thank you for sending your team as a contingent for Tatva.

Could you please share their email IDs and contact numbers as well? We would also encourage them to attempt the quiz; nevertheless, their team will be included in our finalists database.

We look forward to hosting your members at LSR and hope they have a great experience with us.

Regards,
Avni Jindal
