CONFLUENCE 2.0

REPORT

Communiqué, the Branding & Communication Cell of Shaheed Sukhdev College of Business Studies, organized Confluence 2.0 on 24th April 2026, its annual networking mixer designed to bridge the gap between academia and professional ecosystems. The event brought together 50+ high-achieving students from multiple elite Delhi University colleges, along with SSCBS alumni and industry professionals, to foster strategic dialogue and peer-to-peer collaboration.

Through interactive activities, panel discussions, and alumni-led conversations, Confluence 2.0 created a space for meaningful connections, collaborative learning, and the exchange of ideas - bringing together participants from institutions including Lady Shri Ram College for Women, Hindu College, Jesus and Mary College, Kirori Mal College, Sri Venkateswara College, Miranda House, Gargi College, Shri Ram College of Commerce, and more.

Event Highlights

- Structured interaction verticals and experiential networking forums designed to catalyze industry-relevant engagement among participants.
- Panel discussions and alumni-led conversations offering participants direct exposure to real-world professional perspectives.
- Cross-campus participation from 50+ students representing premier Delhi University colleges, alongside SSCBS alumni and industry professionals.

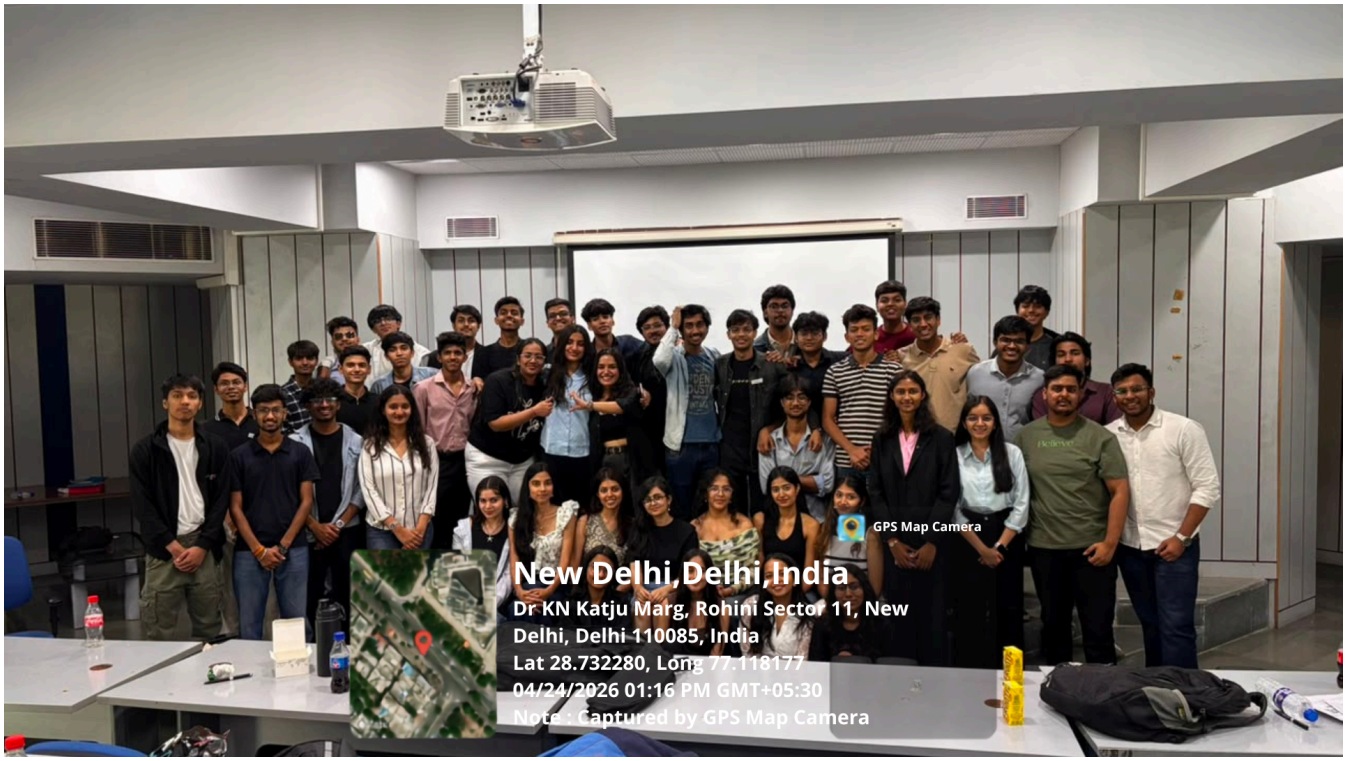

Participant Experience & Impact

Confluence 2.0 successfully established a sustainable framework for cross-campus community building and collaborative professional growth. By facilitating direct dialogue between students, alumni, and industry professionals, the event moved beyond conventional networking to create lasting, structured connections across institutions.

Conclusion

Confluence 2.0 stood as a testament to Communiqué's vision of connecting academia with the professional world. By creating a platform that was interactive, collaborative, and growth-oriented, the mixer empowered participants to build meaningful, lasting professional relationships beyond the boundaries of their own campuses.

As the event wrapped up, what remained was a stronger, more connected cross-campus community - and the belief that real growth happens at the intersection of diverse minds and shared ideas.
