On Day 9, the children celebrated Mother's Day through a creative handmade card making activity. They were encouraged to express their love and appreciation for their mothers by designing personalized greeting cards using colored paper and other craft materials. The activity gave every child the opportunity to unleash their creativity and create something meaningful in their own unique style. The focus was not on perfection but on encouraging imagination, self expression, and the joy of making something with their own hands.

The children participated enthusiastically throughout the session. They carefully selected colors, drew pictures, wrote heartfelt messages, and decorated their cards with great excitement. Each child showed a unique approach to the activity, reflecting their creativity and personal feelings. They remained engaged and took pride in their work, eagerly sharing their finished cards with the facilitators and their classmates.

Along with the academic activities, reels were also recorded to capture moments from the day. This added an element of enjoyment to the session. The children were excited to take part and showed great enthusiasm, which brought a lively and cheerful energy to the environment. It also helped in recording the experience in an engaging way.

The card making activity created a warm, enjoyable, and interactive learning environment. It encouraged creativity, improved fine motor skills, and helped the children express their emotions in a thoughtful way. Members supported the children whenever needed while allowing them the freedom to explore their own ideas. Overall, the session was both meaningful and memorable, leaving the children excited to present their handmade cards to their mothers.
