MBA GUIDANCE SESSION REPORT

In collaboration with MBA Edge, the society organized an interactive session on domestic and international MBA opportunities, drawing participation from 80+ students seeking clarity on postgraduate management education pathways.
The seminar was organized on 18th January 2026.

The session covered the benefits of pursuing an MBA, the different program formats available to prospective candidates, and the key considerations involved in selecting the right pathway aligned with participants' individual career aspirations.

Session Highlights

- An interactive session on domestic and international MBA opportunities delivered in collaboration with MBA Edge.
- A detailed overview of the benefits of pursuing an MBA and how it shapes long-term career trajectories.
- Insights into different MBA program formats, helping participants understand the range of options available to them.
- Guidance on key considerations for selecting the right MBA pathway aligned with individual career goals and aspirations.
- Strong participation of 80+ attendees, reflecting significant student interest in pursuing higher management education.

Participant Experience & Impact

The session gave participants much-needed clarity on the MBA landscape, addressing common questions around program formats, eligibility, and the overall value of pursuing an MBA. By breaking down both domestic and international opportunities, the session enabled participants to evaluate pathways more effectively against their own career aspirations. Attendees left with a stronger, more informed perspective on how to approach their MBA planning.

Conclusion

The MBA Guidance Session, held in collaboration with MBA Edge, stood as a valuable platform for students to gain clarity on postgraduate management education and the pathways available to them. By addressing both domestic and international opportunities in a structured, accessible format, the session helped participants make more informed decisions about their future.

As the session concluded, participants walked away with greater confidence and direction - carrying forward the understanding that the right MBA pathway is one that aligns closely with one's own career aspirations and long-term goals.
